

Child Safety Policy

Policy number	001	Version	1
Drafted by	CEO	Approved by Board on	21/07/2021
Responsible person	CEO	Scheduled review date	June 2022

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Proud2Play is committed to ensuring that children and young people who participate in its activities have a safe and happy experience. Proud2Play supports and respects children, young people, staff, volunteers and participants.
- 1.2. The aim of Proud2Play's Child Safe Policy (the Policy) is to protect the safety of children in our care and prevent abuse from occurring, and in the event that allegations are raised in relation to child abuse, to ensure that the allegations are properly addressed. All complaints will be treated seriously and fully investigated and handled with maximum confidentiality and discretion.
- 1.3. Should a person wish to make any enquiries in relation to this Policy, please contact the CEO, Christine Granger and christine@proud2play.org.au.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

- 2.1. Proud2Play is committed to providing the highest level of membership service. This includes protecting members' privacy, promoting positive behaviours and attitudes, protecting the health safety and wellbeing of members, particularly children and delivering the (Organisation)'s activities while acting in the best interests of children in the sport.
- 2.2. Specifically, Proud2Play considers that the health, safety and well-being of children take priority over all other competing considerations. Proud2Play considers that this is necessary to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all members and protect the image and reputation of the sport, Proud2Play and its affiliate members.
- 2.3. Proud2Play has a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse and is committed to promoting and protecting children from abuse and neglect to the greatest extent possible. All children have equal rights to protection from child abuse, regardless of their sex, religion, disability or sexual orientation etc.

- 2.4. Child protection is a shared responsibility between Proud2Play, its employees, workers, contractors, associates, parents/guardians, volunteers and members of the Proud2Play community. Everyone that participates in Proud 2 Play's activities is responsible for the care and protection of children, and reporting information about child abuse.
- 2.5. Proud2Play supports the active participation of all children. It listens to their views, respects their views and involves them when making decisions, where appropriate, especially about matters that will directly affect them (including their safety).
- 2.6. Proud2Play is also committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children, and those from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children living with a disability.
- 2.7. Proud2Play promotes fairness and consideration for all staff, volunteers and participants. For further details please refer to the Proud2Play Member Protection Policy.

3. SCOPE

- 3.1. This Policy applies to staff, volunteers, participants, contractors, and partners throughout all Proud2Play events and activities.
- 3.2. This Policy will continue to apply retrospectively to a person or Member following the cessation of their association or employment with Proud2Play
- 3.3. Proud2Play is supported by a wide network of partners and supporters. Partnering with Proud2Play is conditional on an affiliated partner implementing and complying with this Policy. Failure to implement and comply with this Policy may cause Proud2Play to end its affiliation with a club that is in breach of its obligations.

5. DEFINITIONS

5.1. Child means a person involved in the activities of Proud2Play and under the age of 18 years unless otherwise stated under the law applicable to the child.

5.2. Child protection means any responsibility, measure or activity undertaken to safeguard children from harm.

5.3. Sexual offence means a criminal offence involving sexual activity or actions of indecency or any act which exposes a child to, or involves a child in, sexual activity or matters beyond his or her understanding or contrary to accepted community standards. Sexually offence behaviours can include the fondling of genitals, masturbation, oral sex, vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, finger or any other object, fondling of breasts, voyeurism, exhibitionism, and exposing the child to or involving the child in pornography. It includes child grooming, which includes actions deliberately undertaken with the aim of befriending and establishing an emotional connection with a child (or the child's carer, family or supervisor) to lower the child's inhibitions and prepare them for engagement in a sexual offence.

5.4. Mandatory reporter means a person who is legally required to make a report to the Department of Human Services or the Police if they form a belief on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection. It includes teachers, principals, registered psychologists, nurses, doctors and midwives.

Policies can be established or altered only by the Board: Procedures may be altered by the CEO.

6. RECOGNISING AND REPORTING CHILD ABUSE

6.1. A person may, in the course of participating in the sport or other activities of Proud2Play or carrying out their work, form a belief on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection from child abuse.

6.2. If a person is concerned about an immediate risk to a child's safety, the person must phone "000" as soon as practicable.

6.3. Child abuse can be divided into four categories:

6.3.1. Physical abuse: occurs when a child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, significant harm as a result of a physical injury, such as a non-accidental physical injury.

6.3.2. Sexual abuse: occurs when a child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, significant harm as a result of sexual abuse, such as when a child is exploited, or used by another for his or her sexual gratification or sexual arousal, or for that of others.

6.3.3. Emotional and psychological abuse: occurs when a child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, emotional or psychological harm of such a kind that the child's emotional or intellectual development is or is likely to be significantly damaged; and

6.3.4. Neglect: occurs when a child's physical development or health has been, or is likely to be significantly damaged. It refers to an omission, such as depriving a child of food, clothing, warmth, hygiene, intellectual stimulation, supervision and safety, attachment to and affection from adults, or medical care.

6.4. Child abuse includes any actions that results in actual or potential harm to a child, in circumstances where the child's parents have not protected, or are unlikely to protect, the child.

6.5. Mandatory Reporters

6.5.1. Select classes of people in the community (including teachers, nurses and doctors) are required by law to report to the Child Protection Unit of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) where they have formed a belief, on reasonable grounds, that a child is in need of protection because they have suffered (or are likely to suffer) significant harm due to physical or sexual abuse.

Policies can be established or altered only by the Board: Procedures may be altered by the CEO.

6.5.2. This report must be made as soon as practicable, and after each occasion where he or she becomes aware of a further reasonable grounds for the belief.

6.6. Reasonable grounds for belief

6.6.1. A reasonable belief is formed if a reasonable person believes that:

- 6.6.1.1. the child is in need of protection;
- 6.6.1.2. the child has suffered or is likely to suffer significant harm as a result of physical or sexual injury; and
- 6.6.1.3. the child's parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child.

6.6.2. To form a reasonable belief, you should consider and objectively assess all the relevant facts, such as the source of the allegation and how it was communicated, the nature of and details of the allegation, and whether there is any other related matters known regarding the alleged perpetrator.

6.6.3. A 'reasonable belief' or a 'belief on reasonable grounds' is not the same as having proof, but is more than mere rumour or speculation.

6.6.4. You will have reasonable grounds to notify if:

- 6.6.4.1. a child states that they have been physically or sexually abused;
- 6.6.4.2. a child states that they know someone who has been physically or sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves);
- 6.6.4.3. someone who knows a child states that the child has been physically or sexually abused;
- 6.6.4.4. professional observations of the child's behaviour or development leads a professional to form a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused or is likely to be abused; or
- 6.6.4.5. signs of abuse lead to a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused.

6.7. Voluntary Reporters

Policies can be established or altered only by the Board: Procedures may be altered by the CEO.

6.7.1. In addition to the mandatory reporting obligations above, any person who believes on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection from any form of child abuse, may disclose that information to the Police or DHHS.

6.8. Reporting Child Sexual Abuse

6.8.1. If a person receives information that leads them to form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed in Victoria against a child (under the age of 16 years) by another person (of or over the age of 18 years), the person has a legal obligation to disclose that information to the Police as soon as it is practicable. Individuals who fail to comply with this obligation under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) may be subject to a penalty of 3 years imprisonment.

6.9. Proud2Play Approach to Reports of Abuse

6.9.1. Proud2Play supports and encourages a person to make a report to the Police or DHHS if they form a belief on reasonable grounds that a child is in need of protection, or they are concerned about the safety, health or wellbeing of a child.

6.9.2. Any person that makes a report in good faith in accordance with their reporting obligations (whether mandatory or discretionary) will be supported by Proud2Play and will not be penalised by Proud2Play for making the report.

6.9.3. If a person is uncertain as to whether they should make a report to an external authority in relation to the safety of a child, they may speak to the Proud2Play CEO for guidance and information. If in doubt, ask for assistance.

6.9.4. If an allegation is made against a member of staff or volunteer, Proud2Play will follow the reporting procedure outlined in Proud2Play's Child Safety Reporting document and take all steps to ensure that the safety of the child is paramount. An initial step will involve the withdrawal of the accused person from active duty, which could entail standing down, reassignment to a role without direct contact with children, working under closer supervision during an investigation, working from home, or any other measures deemed appropriate depending on the seriousness of the allegation.

6.9.5. Proud2Play will investigate allegations of inappropriate conduct against a child in accordance with procedural fairness and will handle the allegations in a confidential manner to the greatest extent possible.

6.9.6. Proud2Play will cooperate with the directions of the Police and/or DHHS in relation to any investigation conducted by these authorities.

6.9.7. Proud2Play will keep a register of any allegations regarding inappropriate conduct.

7. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PERSONNEL PROTECTING CHILDREN

Policies can be established or altered only by the Board: Procedures may be altered by the CEO.

- 7.1. Personnel involved in protecting children include the board, management, staff and volunteers within the Organisation. Those people have responsibilities in relation to protection of children and are expected to:
  - 7.1.1. understand the rights of children, as appropriate to their role;
  - 7.1.2. respect the cultural and religious practices of families who access (Organisation)'s services, programs or events;
  - 7.1.3. understand and appropriately respond to the needs of children with developmental delays or disabilities;
  - 7.1.4. appropriately act on any concerns raised by children;
  - 7.1.5. understand the definitions, indicators and impact of child abuse:
  - 7.1.6. know and follow regulations in relation to the care of children,;
  - 7.1.7. co-operate with police and/or other formal investigations to the best of their ability;
and
  - 7.1.8. not harm or exploit children who access (Organisation)'s services.

8. CHILD SAFE AND CHILD FRIENDLY GUIDELINES TO PREVENT AND MANAGE RISKS OF CHILD ABUSE

8.1. Change Rooms

- 8.1.1. Adults, regardless of gender, should only enter change rooms if accompanied by another adult. Prior to entering change rooms, adults should notify the people in the change room of their intended entrance. For the avoidance of doubt this requirement does not apply to parents/legal guardians when in a room with their child.

8.2. Meeting rooms etc..

- 8.2.1. No Proud 2 Play staff member or volunteer should be alone in the room of a child without the presence of another adult. The doors should always be open. Should it be necessary for an adult to be alone in the room of a child, another staff member or volunteer must be informed. For the avoidance of doubt this requirement does not apply to parents/legal guardians when in a room with their child.

8.3. Travel - General

- 8.3.1. All staff and volunteers over 18 years of age retain an overriding responsibility for the welfare of all children they accompany during travel activities. They have a 'duty of care' for children and they must meet that duty and avoid unaccompanied and unobserved activities with persons less than 18 years of age wherever possible. For the avoidance of doubt this requirement does not apply to parents/legal guardians when in a room with their child.

8.4. Sexual Relationships while delivering programs.

8.4.1. During activities staff and volunteer must not, under any circumstances engage in conduct of a sexual nature with a child. Improper conduct of a sexual nature by an staff member towards a child includes any form of child sexual abuse as well as but not limited to the following:

- 8.4.1.1. inappropriate conversations of a sexual nature;
- 8.4.1.2. obscene language of a sexual nature;
- 8.4.1.3. suggestive remarks or actions;
- 8.4.1.4. jokes of a sexual nature;
- 8.4.1.5. obscene gestures;
- 8.4.1.6. unwarranted and inappropriate touching;
- 8.4.1.7. sexual exhibitionism;
- 8.4.1.8. use of any device to show/watch offensive material; and
- 8.4.1.9. any other action that could lead to an athlete being physically, emotionally or psychologically harmed.

8.5. Adults under investigation

8.5.1. Adults under investigation in relation to a matter involving child abuse, or any matter which has the potential to jeopardise their Working with Children Check (WWCC) (or if based in another State the equivalent requirement) status will be prohibited, by the Proud2Play Board, from participating in Proud2Play activities.

8.6. staff and volunteers (delivery of physical activity programs)

8.6.1. All staff and volunteers must ensure that all physical contact with children which occurs when coaching is appropriate for the situation and necessary for the child's safety. It is strongly recommended that:

- 8.6.1.1. Staff and volunteers ensure that there are other adults present whenever coaching;
- 8.6.1.2. Staff and volunteers take care to explain the procedure to the child prior to beginning any physical contact; and
- 8.6.1.3. Staff and volunteers obtain consent from the child prior to beginning any physical contact.

Policies can be established or altered only by the Board: Procedures may be altered by the CEO.

9. ENGAGING NEW PERSONNEL

- 9.1. The minimum standard for background checks of employees and volunteers of Proud2Play and its members is the law as it applies in Victoria.
- 9.2. Proud2Play undertakes a comprehensive recruitment and screening process for all staff and volunteers which aims to:
  - 9.2.1. promote and protect the safety of all children who participate in the activities of Proud2Play;
  - 9.2.2. identify and recruit the safest and most suitable candidates who share Proud2Play values and commitment to protect children; and
  - 9.2.3. prevent a person from working at Proud2Play if they pose an unacceptable risk to children.
- 9.3. Proud2Play requires staff and volunteers to pass the recruitment and screening process prior to commencing their engagement with Proud2Play.
- 9.4. As part of the screening and recruitment process, an applicant must provide appropriate evidence (e.g. WWCC or other state equivalent and/or Police check) to show that they are suitable to work with children and young people in a recreational setting.
  - 9.4.1. all Proud2Play staff and Board members require a WWCC; and
  - 9.4.2. the following key event personnel must have a valid WWCC:
    - 9.4.2.1. those paid by Proud2Play for their services (excluding bump in and bump out);
    - 9.4.2.2. volunteers;
    - 9.4.2.3. relevant contractors who may have unsupervised access to children; and
    - 9.4.2.4. anyone else who Proud2Play staff feel requires a WWCC due to the nature of the work that they are undertaking for Proud2Play.
- 9.5. The type of evidence that an applicant is required to provide to Proud2Play will vary depending on the type of position that they are applying for. However, an applicant will not be offered a position until they provide the required evidence to Proud2Play.
- 9.6. Proud2Play will exercise discretion and may require applicants to provide a Police check in accordance with the law and as appropriate, before they commence their engagement and during their time with Proud2Play in regular intervals.

Policies can be established or altered only by the Board: Procedures may be altered by the CEO.

- 9.7. Proud2Play will undertake thorough reference checks prior to engaging any personnel.
- 9.8. Once engaged, Proud2Play will provide staff and volunteers with access to this policy and staff and volunteers must review and acknowledge their understanding of this policy.
- 9.9. Proud2Play requires that partner organisations ensure all staff and volunteers (including coaches and any officials) likely to have contact with children have a current WWCC, which needs to be signed off annually as part of the affiliation process. Organisations which do not comply with their legal obligations will be found to have not complied with the Proud2Play partnership requirements and will be disaffiliated.
- 9.10. Proud 2 Play requires all affiliated club personnel including owners, Committee Members, Volunteers, Coaches and Judges and anyone else who has contact with children to possess a valid working with children check. Any costs associated with gaining a valid WWCC will be dealt with in a manner determined by that club.

10. RISK MANAGEMENT APPROACH

- 10.1. Child safety is a part of Proud2Play 's overall risk management approach.

11. POLICY BREACHES

- 11.1. It is a breach of this policy for any person or organisation to which this policy applies, to have been found to have done anything contrary to this policy.

12. POLICY PROMOTION

- 12.1. This policy will be made available to all members via website and email.
- 12.2. This policy will be communicated to all staff, Board, and Committee members via, email and meetings.
- 12.3. References to this policy will be included in documentation provided to all team officials that represent Proud2Play.

13. REVIEW PROCESS

- 13.1. This policy will be reviewed by the Proud2Play Board on an annual basis.

Policies can be established or altered only by the Board: Procedures may be altered by the CEO.

- 13.2. If you would like to provide Proud2Play with any feedback or suggestions to improve this policy, please contact info@proud2play.org.au.

- 13.3. In addition to the regular review of this policy, recommendations for changes to the policy may be submitted to the Board for consideration at any time. In the event that changes are accepted, the policy will be updated, and circulated to all stakeholders via the webpage, bulletin and other appropriate communication channels.
